Michelle Carlson	Family Crisis Centers	October is domestic violence awareness month. Working on a personal care drive. Personal care items desperately needed for the

		survivors we serve. Worked with local schools to get locker fliers out to students with info on services available. October 28th, we have a zoom project where we are doing the I AM project. Creating a poster that helps promote healthy image and awareness. The packages are available to order still this week. The information is on the Family Crisis Centers Facebook page. This is &22 I believe and is done from the comfort of your home. Also a great bonding activity!!
Amber Snyder	Elderbridge Agency on Aging	We are an Agency that assists clients 18-59 with disabilities, 60+ and family caregivers. We continue to admit and keep in contact with clients and family caregivers via phone. If you know of anyone that wants to receive home delivered meals, we ask that you call us at 800-243-0678 so that we can admit them and screen for any other needs. We assist with filling out a variety of types of forms and applications. We are a great referral source to help providers and clients find Agency's in their area that can assist them. We cover 29 counties in the state of Iowa.
Shannon Williams	Plains Plains Area Mental Health Center	Plains is now classified as a CCBHC I have taken over as clinical supervisor for Denison and Ida Grove offices for Alecia Dougherty. We also have new school-based therapist, Casey Schulte

The Science of Parenting Podcast has been focused on Temperament this season: www.scienceofparenting.org. Crawford Extension specifically is having conversations on reaching Latino families with new programming. https://www.extension.iastate.edu/humansciences
Edgar Ramriez	Iowa Workforce Development	Hello everyone! Please excuse me, I do not have a camera (yet) and today it appears I lost my microphone. My name is Edgar Ramirez, I am with Iowa Workforce Development. I am an Outreach Specialist for Migrant and Seasonal Migrant Workers, covering the Northwest portion of the State and currently covering the southwest portion. I am very happy to participate on this meeting and stay up to date with community based services. This year, despite the lovely pandemic, we have received over 6,000 migrant workers throughout the State helping with ongoing Ag Operations, Spring planting and de-tasseling, and Fall harvest and grain collection. Personal care items, long sleeve shirts, winter clothing, and personal care items are always welcome. If you feel the services you provide would be a great match for migrant workers, please contact me edgar.ramirez@iwd.iowa.gov

		Currently we are still in Carroll We are moving to Denison at the end of November no location announced (yet)
Kim Fineran	Crawford County Home Health, Hospice & Public Health	LPH: flu clinics in full swing. We are starting to get low on vaccine so encourage people to call sooner rather than later. Family STEPS: continue face to face or virtual visits depending on the family situation. Quarter report was submitted. Parent Ed: partnership with Job Corps for group education. We received word yesterday that Job Corps has put their employees on lay off status for up to 6 months. Due to no parents at the center for several months, we have partnered with Crossroads/Janette to provide the parent education classes to the community. This has been going well and we will continue this. Baby Boutique-we continue to provide the Boutique and education program on a 1:1 basis with scheduled individual appointments. This has been going well.
Jodi Holm	West Central Community ActionWCCA	Liheap Applications are being taken from October 1 till April 30.
